Minister Young meets with Huawei Technologies Executives

On Thursday 7th June, 2018, the Honourable Major General (retired) Edmund Dillon, M.P., Minister of National Security and the Honourable Stuart R. Young, M.P., Minister of Communications, Minister in the Ministry of the Attorney General and Legal Affairs and Minister in the Office of the Prime Minister met with executives of Huawei Technologies for a presentation by one of their top Executive Global Security Officers.

This meeting was a direct follow up to the recent, Official Visit of Dr. the Honourable Keith Rowley, Prime Minister of Trinidad and Tobago, to the People's Republic of China and in particular, an outcome of his visit to Huawei headquarters in Shenzhen, China, where it was agreed that Huawei would do an assessment of Trinidad and Tobago's National Fusion Centre. The meeting and presentation was the kick off to the assessment being done by Huawei and it is envisaged that National Security would increase its utilization of technology in the fight against crime.
